

In the interest of free speech, and the ability to express a diversity of opinions which will be freely available to the general public, I feel it is necessary to limit the ability to form media conglomerates. In addition, the ability to form cross-media ownership should be prevented.